2003 FOREST STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM

Vashon-Maury Island
Land Trust Building
Vashon, Washington
Wednesday 7:00-9:30
January 22nd – March 26th

Program Sponsored by:

KING COUNTY

Washington State University Cooperative Extension is now recruiting for the Forest Stewardship Program. Learn how to write a forest management plan, enhance your stewardship practices and explore incentive options to reduce your property taxes.

Why Should I Attend?

If you are interested in developing your own forest management plan or learning how to enroll your property in one of the several tax incentive programs available to forest landowners this class is for you. To be eligible for these programs you will need a forest management plan. At the end of the class you will have a comprehensive forest management plan that is completed and ready to submit. Don't miss out. This class is very popular and the only one we will be holding on Vashon in 2003!

Who Should Attend?

Forest landowners that are interested in:

- Managing their property for economic, aesthetic, wildlife or other sustainable uses.
- Reducing their property taxes!
- Learning good natural resource stewardship techniques.
- Learning how to develop and implement their forest management objectives.

What Will I Learn?

You will write your own forest management plan that meets your objectives and goals. Classes emphasize practical stewardship of forest resources. Participants receive guidance and technical assistance from natural resource professionals. Topics covered include soils, aesthetics, wildlife, silviculture, forest health, stand inventory, forest ecology, and habitat enhancement.

In addition to class attendance, there will be homework and reading assignments. Attendance at all sessions and completion of homework is REQUIRED!

The fee for the class is $65.00 for land trust members and $100.00 for nonmembers which includes all class materials and a site visit with a forester. Sign up today!!!
Enrollment in this class is limited and is first come first serve!

Training sessions will be held on eight Wednesday evenings from 7:00-9:30 p.m. and two weekend field trips from 10:00 – 3:00. Evening Sessions: Jan. 22nd, 29th, Feb. 5th, 12th, and 26th, March 5th 12th, and 26th.
Field Trips: Feb. 8th and Feb. 22nd.

If you are unable to attend this program there will be two other Forest Stewardship programs held in King County in 2003.

To register complete the attached registration form and send it with payment by no later than January 20th to the Vashon-Maury Island Land Trust.

*YOUR SPACE IS NOT CONFIRMED UNTIL WE HAVE RECEIVED YOUR PAYMENT. ****
